Holywells Park Tree of Remembrance

The Tree of Remembrance was commissioned by the Ipswich Hospital Baby Bereavement Group to offer local bereaved parents the opportunity to honor their baby in a simple, quiet way.

Each leaf bears the name and date of birth of a baby lost in pregnancy or the neonatal period.

Each brass leaf costs £40 and is paid for through continuous fundraising events held by the volunteers of the Baby Bereavement Support Group. All donations to subsidise the cost of the leaf are gratefully received through the Colchester & Ipswich Hospitals Charity.
