				Financial interests	Outside employment	Remuneration: I have recevied honoraria from Astra Zenica and NAPP pharmaceutical companies for the delivery of promotional and non-promotional educational sessions to healthcare professionals and those taking prescribing courses. Other benefits: AZ covered the cost of my attendance (registration) for the virtual EASD conference Sept 2020. Non-remunerated conflicts of interest: I have also contributed to regional discussions on patient care pathways in relation to an Academic Healthcare Sciences project supported by AZ and NHS England aiming to improve cardiovascular outcomes in patients with type 2 diabetes. This work is not remunerated - but may be in the futures as the project develops. I have also contributed to the development of GLP-1 pathways with Novo Nordisk - no remmuneration recevied for this work.	All promotional meetings are conducted according to ABPI rules and discussion of medical products is therefore entirely within the excisiting MHRA licence for that product. All such meeting / sponsorship are declared to the ABPI regluartory processess on a yearly basis. 2/6/21 - Update received from ABPI / Disclosure UK with breakdown of benefits received in 2020 which are as follows: 1. Astra Zenica: Registration fees (EASD - international virtual conference) - £147.70. Expenses £63. Service fees £2700. 2. NAPP - Service fees			May 2023
